Scripture: Hebrews 12 : 4 – 11

Title: Discipline as God Sees It

MESSAGE

Discipline - the training of a child. The Purposes of Discipline (1) Punishment = corrective (David, a man after God's own heart) 2 Samuel 12:10. It's not judgemental. Non-believers receive it. (2) Prevention [of sin]. 2 Corinthians 12:7 Paul is reminded to be humble. (3) Education. Understand the ways & character of God - Job 42:3–6. A good person can learn more about God & understands Him better through his suffering. Things occur that we cannot control, we have to trust in God. Don't Be Forgetting V5 We need to pay attention to what we've learned. When the word is neglected ... Proverbs 3:11–12. Two dangers of forgetting. Despise the discipline of the Lord - regard it lightly. Discouraged when you are rebuked - don't quit. God's Discipline Proves He Loves Us Vs 6 – 8 God disciplines those He loves. God wants us to be righteous, mature, obedient & trusting. Ephesians 3:17, 1:4–5. Lamentations 3:31–33 God's discipline proves we are his children. All men are subject to punishment. Discipline is Not Meant to be Pleasant V 9–10. God's discipline produces: Life Deuteronomy 21:18–21, the danger of constant rebellion to God, & Holiness 1 Peter 1:16. The Ultimate Goal V11 Our character is built based on afflictions/challenges - James 1:2–4. Fruit of righteousness - joy, peace with God, stronger faith.
